La última entrada al infierno acaba de abrirse en el lugar equivocado. Michael despierta con un tremendo dolor abdominal, pronto descubre que ese dolor se debe a que acaba de abrirse una puerta al infierno en su propia barriga. Desde donde salen horrorosas criaturas que pondrán en juego su vida y la de su amada esposa. Michael tendrá que escapar a su vez de seres siniestros que intentan poseer esta entrada, llevando consigo una puerta al infierno a todos los lugares en los que se esconde. Michael llega a un lugar desierto, donde debe dejar de huir y buscar una solución. ¿Podrá Michael encontrar la salida antes que sea tarde?

Michael and Marianne, recently married and having moved into their new home, come to discover that their peaceful lives are about to be turned upside down when Michael starts suffering from severe stomach pains. They will soon discover that the pain comes from a miscalculation made by Victor, a demonologist who has just opened a portal to hell....in Michael's stomach.

Now both Michael and Marianne have to run from dangerous people who are after this gate....while facing horrific creatures that are escaping from the portal that Michael carries in his body. They will soon arrive to a deserted town which will be plagued with monsters and death. Will Michael find a way out before it's too late?
