Juan Ramos, Sub-Contralor General en Guatemala, es arrestado e ingresado a prisión preventiva, mientras prueba su inocencia por cargos de corrupción y asesinato. Aunque ha pagado por estar en el sector VIP, es llevado al peor sector de la cárcel. Su lucha por llegar a ser parte del sector exclusivo, lo hará conocer la cruda realidad vivida día a día dentro de la prisión. Pero desde el VIP, sus enemigos cocinan planes vengativos con el fin de hacer la estadía de Juan lo más corta y violenta posible.

“Very Important Prisoners”

Juan Ramos, the Government Controller of Guatemala, is arrested and sent to a rehabilitative prison, while he is given time to assemble evidence to prove his innocence after being convicted of corruption and murder. Although he has paid to be in the VIP sector, he is placed in the worst and most dangerous sector of the prison. His struggle to be included in the VIP sector causes him to know the cruel realities lived day by day. Through blood, sweat, and tears, Juan begins to learn and navigate the murky politics in and out of the cell. But, it is from the VIP sector, that his enemies draw up a plan of vengeance to make his stay the shortest and most violent possible.
