

Toque de Queda

Genre: Suspense

Cast: Juan Pablo Olyslager, Julio Serrano, Roberto Diaz G., Kunti Shaw

Director: Elias Jimenez, Ray Figueroa

Country-Yr: Guatemala 2011

Duration: 100 minutes

Theatrical: 4/11

En Guatemala, la violencia se ha convertido en un virus. La gente se esconde y protege de ello, pero esa sensación de seguridad es cada vez mas frágil y todos parecen estar contagiados. Los vecinos de Villas de la Esperanza, acechados por una eventual invasión de contagiados por la violencia, deciden armarse y defender sus hogares con sus propias vidas. Pero por mucho que se atrincheren en un intento de protegerse la violencia los tocara a todos.

---

In Guatemala, violence has turned into a virus. People hide and protect themselves, but that sense of security is increasingly fragile and everyone seems to be infected. The neighborhood of Villas de la Esperanza, stalked by a possible invasion of those infected by violence, decide to arm themselves and defend their homes with their own lives. But as much as they become entrenched in order to protect themselves, the violence will affect everyone.